

AFTER-SCHOOL CHOIR

WHO?

Charter elementary students grades 1st - 5th

WHAT?

An after-school music program that incorporates a broad selection of music genres, choreography, music history, music appreciation and relevant music theory

WHEN?

After-school on Thursdays or Fridays. The day of the week will be determined based on the response from the parents. We will start the first week in October.

HOW MUCH?

$5 per/week ($50 for 10 weeks plus a $20 materials fee). The students will receive a CD to take home and a folder with their music.

Michelle Moyer is excited to bring the after-school music program to Charter School. Michelle has a passion for teaching and helping young children grow as musicians. She is a Level 1 certified Music Together educator with nine years of experience. She has a reputation for creating a safe and musically rich environment where children explore music and have fun. In addition to teaching pre-school aged children, Michelle has taught elementary music focusing on music appreciation, theory, history and practical skills. Michelle served as the music director for Mount Madonna's Performing Arts program and school productions. She taught vocal music and assisted in choreography for the High School performances of Once Upon a Mattress and the Middle School performances of Guys and Dolls during the 2008-09 school year. Michelle's professional credits include: The Broadway National Tour of Jesus Christ Superstar. The International Tours of: 42nd Street, A Chorus Line, and Jesus Christ Superstar. Additionally Michelle was a Rock Singer at Tokyo Disneyland and a performer for the Norwegian Cruise Lines.
